15th Annual Mt. Adams Country Bicycle Tour

Saturday, June 24, 2017

30-second spot - The 15th Annual Mt. Adams Country Bicycle Tour on June 24th will have you cycling on quiet, sun-drenched country roads around the Trout Lake area with Mt. Adams right over your shoulder.

Four ride options include an 11½-mile Family Friendly ride, a 51-mile Trout Lake - BZ Corner - Glenwood Loop, a 54-mile Forest Loop, and a 105-mile Infinity Ride.

All rides feature well-marked routes, well-stocked rest stops, lunch and dinner options, plus sag wagons, repair support, radio coverage, and emergency teams.

It's a carefree ride through some of the most spectacular scenery in the Pacific Northwest.

1-minute spot - The 15th Annual Mt. Adams Country Bicycle Tour on Saturday, June 24 will have you cycling leisurely through flat farmlands on quiet sun-drenched country roads, or powering up seemingly endless forest-clad hills with gleaming views of giant snow-clad Mt. Adams always over your shoulder and around every bend.

Choose from four ride options:

- the 11½-mile Family Fun Ride through the beautiful Trout Lake Valley,
- the 51-mile Trout Lake - BZ Corner - Glenwood Loop,
- the 54-mile Forest Loop coursing the flanks of Mt Adams,
- and the 105-mile Infinity Ride combining the two Loops.

The 2015 Mt. Adams Country Bicycle Tour is the perfect chance to explore and enjoy the dry side of the Cascades south of Mt Adams. You'll join other riders of all abilities to enjoy the fresh mountain air and spectacular views from the quiet vantage of two rolling wheels.

The rides feature well-marked routes, rest stops with snacks and water, sag wagons, repair support, radio coverage, and emergency teams, as well as optional lunch and post-ride meals. The Mt. Adams Country Bicycle Tour makes for a truly care-free ride through some of the most spectacular scenery in the Pacific Northwest.
